

Fact, Fiction & Verse / Books by Brown Authors

A History of Letters: Memorable Quotes From a Moribund Art

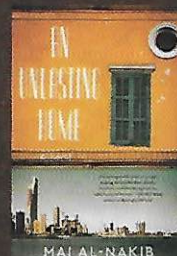

Mel B. Yoken '61 MAT

Find out what more than 80 of the most influential, brilliant and respected people of the 20th and 21st centuries shared in over 140 of their unique, inspiring and personal letters! melyoken.com

Saving the Art of Medicine Dr. Allen Sussman '70

The science of medicine is glorified while the art is often diminished. A sophisticated integration of the two, however, will cause medicine to flourish. Wise, compassionate, expansive in scope. savingtheartofmedicine.com

An Unlasting Home: A Novel

Mai Al-Nakib '04 PhD

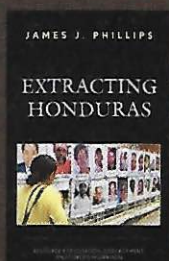

Sara, philosophy professor at Kuwait University, is accused of blasphemy—a capital crime. Awaiting trial, she traces the lives of the women who shaped her, charting a map across the Middle East and beyond. harpercollins.com

Burning Distance

Joanne Leedom-Ackerman '74 AM

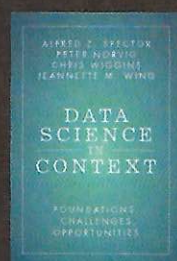

A modern-day Romeo and Juliet set right before the first Gulf War. It's a journey through family secrets and competing loyalties, contemporary history and the dark world of arms trafficking. joanneleedom-ackerman.com

Extracting Honduras

James J. Phillips '72 AM, '76 PhD

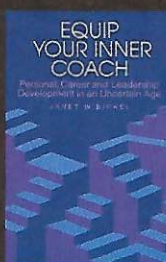

Beyond the often cited reasons for migration, Phillips provides a detailed account of how the frenzied extraction of natural resources has created massive displacement, poverty, and vulnerability, while encouraging corruption, violence, repression, and emigration. rowman.com/Lexington

Data Science in Context

Peter Norvig '78

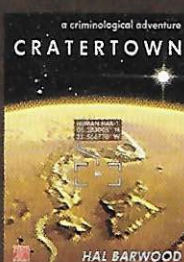

Data science underlies applications used by billions of people every day. Four leading experts convey the field's excitement and promise, and the challenges in gaining its benefits, while mitigating potential harms. datascienceincontext.com

Equip Your Inner Coach

Janet W. Bickel '76 AM

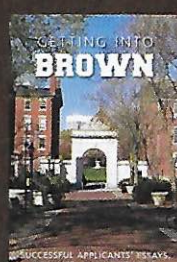

This book assists early and mid-career professionals to build on their strengths, approach conflicts as learning opportunities, navigate organizational politics, and build resilience, including how women can meet the extra challenges they still face. janetbickel.com

Cratertown

Hal Barwood '63

The only town on Mars is populated by religious enthusiasts. When an agent arrives to investigate a murder he upends their fragile society, even as he grows to love the habitat and its brave citizens. finitearts.com

Getting Into Brown: Successful Applicants' Essays, Resumes, and Interviews

Richard Montauk '75

Veteran educational consultant's in-depth look at how best to apply to Brown today. Available, along with Richard's other guides, at Amazon. richardmontauk.com